

Competition Winners

First prize

Kate Kenlock

“Don’t take alarm that silly bastards control your Britain and may make decidedly bad rules”

Second prize

Helen Taylor

“Difficult times and tricky situations, but clearly young Boris and Mrs May discuss Brexit relentlessly”

Third prize

Jeanne Mills

“Duvets that attract those special buyers can yield beautiful and magnificent moments during bed rest”

Competition Answers

Science, The Earth, Nature’s Wonders and Beyond

24 Black Birds Baked in a Pie

5 Sides to a Prism or 5 Sides to a Pentagon

42 - The Answer to Life, the Universe and Everything!

3 Stars in Orion’s Belt

An Octopus and a Squid both have 8 Arms and on the subject of Octopuses, did you know they have 3 Hearts?

A Cat has 9 Lives and there are 9 Planets in the Solar System

“J” is the only Letter not on the Periodic Table

165 Years for Neptune to Orbit the Sun

Man Made

A Nebuchadnezzar holds 20 Bottles of Wine

2 Pints in a Flagon

There are 7 Spikes on the Head / Hat of the Statue of Liberty

5 Rings on the Olympic Flag

The London Eye has 32 Pods

270 Stations in the London Underground Ground

14 Lines in a Sonnet but only 5 in a Limerick

195 Countries in the World

2 Sides to Every Story

Over 12 Million Letters Delivered to the Front during WW1

Music, Fun and Games

37 Numbers on a Roulette Wheel

6 Pockets on a Billiard Table

36 Black Keys on a standard Piano Keyboard

168 Dots in a Set of Dominoes but only 21 on a Dice

8 People in a Tug of War Team

Orchestra's Tune to the Note "A"